

Adam Hroncich

April 11, 1979 - August 5, 2019

Adam “Hollywood” Hroncich left us on August 5, 2019 in body but certainly not in spirit. He fought with integrity and a warrior nature.

Adam was born in Teaneck, NJ on April 11, 1979 to Nick and Grace Hroncich. He grew up Hoboken, NJ and moved to Wilmington in 1988, eventually attending Hoggard High School where he became a star athlete on Hoggard’s football team. His teammates remember Adam’s speed on the field outrunning many of their competitors.

Adam’s love of sports permeated through his children and his greatest joy was watching Haven & Kingston in ‘beast-mode’ on the soccer field.

Adam loved Duke Basketball, Yankees baseball, Notre Dame & Giants football and his booming voice could be heard above all others when he would cheer on his teams. Adam was also a wonderful chef and loved cooking meals for his family; his specialty being an authentic Croatian gravy and everyone who tasted this dish agreed it was delectable.

Adam had a huge heart and if you were part of his inner circle and had his loyalty, you were truly blessed. His quick wit and sense of humor were eminent; you didn’t spend time with him without laughing.

Adam is survived by his love and soulmate Monique and his beautiful children Haven (18) and Kingston (12); his father Nick, his mother Grace and step-father Farid Maiwandi; brother Paul and wife Erica; countless Aunts, Uncles, Nieces, Nephews and Cousins. In addition, there are numerous other extended family members, good friends who are family and their children who loved Adam and will miss him immensely.

Adam's loved ones will receive friends & family on Thursday, August 8th from 6-8pm at the gymnasium at Masonboro Baptist Church, 1501 Beasley Road, Wilmington, NC 28409.

Details regarding a celebration of life for Adam to follow.
