“ Tara,
I am so sorry to hear this, what a terrible month this has been for you. Heart pains for you and your daughter, losing her dad. I do not know what happened, but I will keep you both in prayer, condolences to his whole family. How very sad. I was so suprised to see this on facebook . God bless your aching hearts.

“ I just wanna thank you we had some really amazing times together we ended up sharing the most beautiful thing life ever could've given even one of us. Even after all the many years apart, we still had a bond that couldn't be broken and I am very thankful for the last two years how we really coparent and got along for our daughter. It feels unreal that you're gone, but please watch our daughter from the heavens, protect cailey and keep us all safe and please hold a spot for us.
