“ You are finally home now, but we will miss you! You are ONE of the most caring people I have ever met! I am proud to have worked side by side with you, laughed, and shared stories . Always grateful,

“ Cathy was one whom I will always cherish the memories of b/c she never complained, no matter her state she always has that smile , I never realized until she left this earth how far along her battle was cause she never let you see that side , what a great and special lady she was amazing . Go now Sis go and rest high on that mountain your work has been completed here go to Heaven with the Father where I know you were welcomed in with open arms , oh how great that must have been to see your face as the Father spoke those words "Enter In My Good And Faithful Servent".
