In his final thoughts he told us he was so Thankful and that our family will all be together again. Peace to you Papa! You are forevermore our hero.

Charlie had the most giving heart and kindest soul of anyone we have ever known. He looked out for all of us. He often told Macayla “Everything will be okay” We will look up to your star for that reassurance now.

We will miss you forever and love you always. Papa, we will see you again . -
