

Charles Saliba

Charles Galloway Saliba, of Kure Beach, passed away on Friday, August 19, 2022.

Charles was born in Wilmington, NC, on March 7, 1954. He spent most of his life in Wilmington. He started his career as a commercial fisherman in Wrightsville Beach where he was known as Captain Charles. He also was a charter boat captain and oysterman. He loved the water and talked about his friends whom he called, Crabman, Flounderman and many others. He was a beloved son, father, brother and uncle.

He is survived by two sons, Brandon Saliba and Charles Saliba; sisters, Caroline Saliba Keel and husband, Gary and Lisa Saliba; brother, Karl Saliba; nieces, Catherine Saliba Western and husband, Hunter and Whit Saliba Ahmad and husband, Yahya; and nephew, Peter Saliba.

Charles was such a special person. He loved animals and at one time, he cared for 13 abandoned cats that he fed.

He will be greatly missed by his family, friends and all who knew him.

Funeral services are being taken care of by Atlantic Cremation Service.

A Memorial Service will be held at a later date.

Tribute Wall

L3

“ Lisa, Caroline and family, So sorry to hear about Charles. I know he was a sweet soul, and that you will miss him terribly. Sending prayers and love ❤️

Lynne 3 - September 07, 2022 at 11:49 PM