

Charlotte Ann Martin

October 29, 1939 - July 12, 2025

Charlotte Wilkinson Martin, age 85, passed away peacefully on July 12, 2025. Born on October 29, 1939, she lived a life filled with love, creativity, and compassion.

She was preceded in death by her beloved husband, Warren B. Martin; her sons, Charles E. Swartz and J. Walter Swartz; and her parents, Walter and Lennie Wilkinson.

She is survived by her daughter, Joyce S. Ingraham and her husband Ben; her stepson, Andrew Martin and his wife Christina and their family; her sister, Helen Frye and her husband Frank; and numerous nieces, nephews, and extended family members, all whom she cherished.

Charlotte was a gifted artist and children's book author who brought beauty, joy, and imagination to those around her. She also found great fulfillment in her long career with the federal government, where she served with pride and dedication.

Charlotte will be remembered as a loving mother, wife, daughter, sister, and friend. She had a generous heart and a deep desire to make others happy—through her art, her words, and her everyday kindness.

There are no arrangements for a service at this time; a private family service will be held at a later date. Charlotte will be laid to rest at Ward's Cemetery in Cedar Grove, West Virginia.

“ I love you, mom. I can't wait to see you and my other lost loved ones in the paradise God has promised. He will resurrect all those sleeping in death. We will be healthy, young, and happy. No more war, no more death or mourning. Psalm 37:26 says 'the righteous will possess the earth, and they will live forever on it' There is also the promise at Isaiah 25:8 - He will swallow up death forever, and the Sovereign Lord Jehovah will wipe away the tears from all faces.

“ I know right now it feels like this is the worst day ever. Jehovah sees your heart and know that you're in pain and that one day soon we're not gonna be in the system and we'll be welcoming her back to a life of everlasting. You're in our prayers. May you find comfort and what Jehovah has for us in the future love you, sis.
