“ Dear Gordon, Julie and Jay,

I extend my heartfelt sympathies to all of you during this difficult time. I hope that knowing she is peacefully happy in Heaven will ease your burden. I have known Christine since we were eleven years old, and shared many memories along our journey. Even when we both moved far away, we kept in touch with long, joyous telephone calls. Memories of Christine will always remain in my heart!

“❤️ Christine was a love and will be dearly missed. My sister-in-law left me with some funny memories of the times we shared on my visit. I'm sure she met Gerry on her way and I'm sure they'll have alot to talk about. They are at peace ❤️ They are surrounded by family ❤️

Love you Gordon, thinking of you ❤️

“ My beautiful cousin Christine. The first cousin to pass on my father Kilbride side. I will always remember your beautiful smile, touch of style, your laugh. Unfortunately I was never able to make it down to North Carolina so it has been years. So sad that you lost your life memories to that horrible disease. Gordon: know that we all think of you and grateful that you stayed by her.
