“ Seems unfair that I am 2 years late to sign this guestbook. I am heartbroken to have searched only to find one of the brightest flames I ever knew on this earth was extinguished in the prime of her life, clearly being a fantastic mom and wife, which I would never have expected less because she was a one of a kind friend.

I am a better man, a better person because of Paige being such an amazing friend in our teen years. She offered amazing advice and was never afraid to set me straight when I needed it. We laughed about so much, probably about things maybe only we understood but she was always so easy to talk to. A part of me will always be sad that I didn't get to reach out to her sooner. It would have been an honor to have met her husband and children, and to maybe share a belly laugh about some of the crazy stuff we got into.

I have no doubt you are resting in peace, and are playing any number of stringed instruments in Gods Kingdom and maybe adding some critique too. =)

My prayers are always with your beautiful family and await the day we see each other again in the Kingdom, and laugh one more time.

“ My deepest condolences to the family, may you find comfort in prayer and the beautiful words of Isaiah 25:8 and Rev. 21:4 where God promises us that He will soon cease all death and suffering.

“ I know you have all been told what an amazing woman Paige was over and over, she was a motivator to all of the parents at Winter Park Elementary School. She gave her best at everything she volunteered for, and expected the same from others. Thank you for sharing her heart with all of us. We are continuing to pray for your strength.

“ My heart aches for you all! I had the pleasure of meeting Paige and her husband at a parent conference for Jackson. The love of her husband and family was so evident at that meeting. Jackson spoke often of his Mom. I know he and the rest of the Friesland family will forever have an angel watching over them. She didn't want to leave, but she is in a better place and out of the pain and struggles in this life. Rest easy Paige. May her family and friends find peace and comfort.

“ Paige is one of those people who makes a mark on every life she has ever come into contact with. I remember her as an amazing mother, always willing to go the extra mile (or more) to help. All who knew Paige were blessed. My prayers are with her family as they mourn her passing. May God grant them the peace that surpasses all understanding.

“ Paige was a good friend to me. She helped me in so many ways when I was sick. Her love of life and family will live on thru her children as well as all of us who were fortunate to have her as a friend. There is another bright star in the Heavens. Rest in peace my beautiful friend. Sending prayers of comfort and peace to her family.
