“ George and his whole family mean so much to me especially since I'm older and I realize how great they were to my brother and I everything that was in that is true and to this day I never forget how the whole Harkinson family treated my brother and i. like it says they open there home to us and made us a part of their family and I'll never forget that till the day I die. RIP George you know what I'm pouring on the curb for you

“ George was one hell of a friend and always a good time. Always looked fwd to running into him at various locations, and sometimes I'd just see him at a friends house chilling and he'd always brighten my day. I was deeply saddened when I heard of his tragic, early death. It's just not fair...all the good ones go young and wish I coulda spent more time w/ him after I moved away from Wilmington. I looked up to George very much and had lots of respect for him. I'll miss him tremendously. Peace & love brother...till next time when I meet ya on the other side

“ George was such a welcoming guy. The first time I met him was at the family reunion in the Bronx. He instantly was welcoming to me and even though we were different in many ways, we fell into an easy conversation. That was always how it was with George, we didn't see him often, but whenever we visited NC he was always so warm, friendly and chill. I'm sure that on the other side he's already created a large group of friends, sharing laughs, fishing and charming everyone with his great smile and wit. We'll all miss you George and I'm looking forward to getting a hug and seeing that smile when we meet again.

“ I remember summers visiting with George Matthew-family reunions, playing in the woods behind Grandma and Grandpa's house in Washington, going to the lake, climbing on the Green Monster, walking to Arthur's to buy candy. Spending time with all the cousins was what summer was all about-- making fun of each other, playing games, growing up. I wish we could continue to make memories together and make fun of ourselves getting old. I miss you George Matthew. love, Meg “ George Matthew, in your life and in your passing you helped us learn to love without judgement and that peace comes through forgiveness.

“ I am at the beach thinking about George Matthew. It is early in the morning ...far too early for the tourist. It is quiet. Just me and two fisherman on this stretch of sand. A good place to think about George. He loved being near and on the water too.
How fortunate he was to have been born in a family that loved and cared for him no matter where he was in this life. And how fortunate we all were to have his presence our lives too.
A stand up paddler is crossing by and I am thinking..."It's so curious: one can resist tears and 'behave' very well in the hardest hours of grief. But then someone makes you a friendly sign behind a window, or one notices that a flower that was in bud only yesterday has suddenly blossomed, or a letter slips from a drawer... Or a paddler glides by and everything collapses. "
I miss you George Matthew now in the arms of the angels.

“ You were something else, an energy that existed on a plane that was otherworldly. No matter what happened, no matter the circumstances or odds, you were always the "Half Full" guy and I loved you so fiercely for that. You were honest to a fault, loving and passionate and I will miss you to no end.

*I was with a little girl today and she said, "I can burp, watch this...*buuurp*" and I said, "My cousin George Matthew taught me how to burp when I was little....*BUUURP!*" and she said, "Man...what a cool cousin."*

And you were. And I love you forever.

“ To the Harkinson family and Angie, I am so very sorry to read about your loss of George. Fortunately, death is only a temporary part of life. Jesus promised us a wonderful resurrection of the dead (John 5:28,29/1 Thessalonians 4:13, 14), so we have the hope of being reunited with our deceased loved ones. In the meantime, even though the pain of loss through death may seem sometimes insurmountable, rest assured that God will give you the strength necessary to endure the coming months (Psalm 46:1). Please accept my deepest sympathy and sincere condolences.
