

James Adam Psichos

August 2, 1933 - February 12, 2025

James “Jim” A. Psichos, 91, passed away on February 12, 2025, in Wilmington, NC.

Born in East Orange, NJ, he grew up in West Orange, NJ. In 1994, he and his wife, Mary Ellen, moved from Little Silver, NJ, to NC, later settling in Carolina Shores, NC, where they embraced a new chapter of their lives.

Those who knew Jim knew he loved life. James had a deep passion for golf, not only playing the game but also crafting clubs. He also adored other activities, including tennis, watching the NY Giants, country music, and telling stories surrounded by family and friends. Everyone who met him was a friend for life. His memory will live on in the stories shared by those who knew and loved him.

James was predeceased by his wife Mary Ellen; parents Adam and Metaxia. He is survived by his children Jim & wife Eileen, and daughter Kiera; Brett & wife Rene and children Alex & Amara; Jennifer, Michael, and Kate; Sister Betty, Brother, George & wife Rose Psichos, as well as nieces and nephews. The family would like to thank LifeCare Hospice Care in Wilmington for their kindness and care. A celebration of his life will be held in New Jersey at a later date.

Tribute Wall

JG

“ Dear family,

My heart aches from the deep sorrow you are enduring.

*In the warmth of God's love, may you find comfort in His assurance that "He will wipe every tear from their eyes. There will be no more death or mourning or crying or pain." - Revelation 21:3,4
He says that death is an "enemy that will be destroyed." - 1
Corinthians 15:26*

Knowing that our sorrow will one day be just a memory and that through Christ, our loved ones will be resurrected, comforts our hearts.

" We grieve, but not as those without hope. " 1 Thessalonians 4:13

Love from a stranger, jrfdog@gmail.com

jay Godfrey - February 22, 2025 at 10:19 AM