

Jane Carol Anglin

December 14, 1955 - December 4, 2025

Jane Carol Anglin, born December 14, 1955, in Radford, Virginia, was the beloved daughter of the late Arko David Anglin and Margaret Corn Newman. She is survived by her husband, Terry L. Love of Wilmington, NC; her brother, Michael Lee Newman, and sister-in-law, Kathy Lewis Newman, of Winston-Salem, NC; and her nephew, Justin Lee Newman, of High Point, NC. She is also fondly remembered by cherished in-laws Farrell Kennedy, Brendy Love Kennedy, and Grant Kennedy of Cary, NC.

Growing up in Stuart, VA, Jane graduated from Patrick County High School and New River Community College before building a meaningful career in property management while living in Northern Virginia. She later retired to Wilmington, NC, where she found great joy in the coastal community she loved.

Jane embraced life with warmth, gratitude, and a generous spirit. She delighted in walking the beach and searching for seashells, gathering with friends for dinner club, and tending her yard—especially the flowers she lovingly nurtured with her remarkable green thumb. Her deep love for animals was reflected in the devoted care she gave to her dogs: Georgie, Chloe, Bernie, and Bailey. Jane also treasured decorating and celebrating the holidays, and she held a special affection for her favorite film, It's a Wonderful Life. She often lived by the sentiment that inspired her: "Life is not measured by the breaths we take, but by the moments that take our breath away." Now, she rests in the arms of her Savior.

A celebration of Jane's life for close family and friends will be held this spring. For those who wish to honor her memory, contributions may be made to Lower Cape Fear LifeCare in Wilmington, NC.

“ I could write chapters but will summarize Jane Anglin's wonderful life well lived!

Jane and I were thick and thieves back in her Blacksburg days and I could not have asked for a better friend in every way.

Jane was beautiful, inside and out, very generous, fun and funny. We had so many good times and laughs that will stay with me for eternity.

I admire Jane's fight and positive attitude during her health battle, what an encouragement for everyone.

This closes a chapter that I enjoyed reading, and will continue to read, over and over and I will miss her terribly.

My heart hurts and goes out to Terry and her family, may God bless you all.

Rest well my dear friend.

“ Terry, Joyce and I are so saddened about the news of Jane's passing. I attended Stuart Elementary with Jane and have such fond memories of growing up in that small town with her and all of our close friends. My future wife Joyce and I then took the big leap with Jane to the new high school in 1970, where we made so many wonderful memories, I'm sure you heard many of them from your beautiful wife! I know no words can soften the grief you're experiencing at this moment, but there are so many reminiscing now of how Jane touched their lives! Prayers go out to you and your family.

“ I never met Jane but knew her only through Terry's mentions of her. I know she was beautiful and fun-loving because Terry described her that way. I know Terry loved her and experienced great joy in her company. I know that she and Terry will be together again in the next life, and that makes me happy. Until then, I will celebrate with Jane the absence of her pain from the cancer which took her life. My condolences to Terry and all who knew and loved her.

“ Terry, I am so sorry for your loss. I met Jane about five years ago when you and I got reacquainted from our high school days. In that short time, she was always kind and friendly to me. Even as her health worsened, she never complained. Jane will be truly missed, but I know she is in a better place with no pain. Again Terry, I am so sorry am I am always here for you.

“ *It was such a pleasure knowing Jane. She was such a sweet, down to earth person! I can still hear her say "Hey, Honey", which was always said with a big smile each time I visited her. She was so appreciative of everything!
Jane had quite the gift of being a wonderful decorator and took great pride in her beautifully decorated home.
I will fondly remember her tenacity, cheerfulness and kindness. Rest in peace, dear Jane. You will be greatly missed.*
