“ I was sorry to read about the loss of your dear loved one. The bible gives us hope of seeing them again in the promised resurrection according to these scriptures [John 5:28-29] and [Acts 24:15]. We find further hope in [Isaiah chapter 25:8] and [Revelations 21:3-5] which says in part that Jehovah God will wipe out every tear from our eyes, by swallowing up death forever. I hope these scriptures will be of some comfort. Sincere Condolences.
