

Kathryn Lee Bernard

May 11, 1959 - September 8, 2025

Kathryn “Kathy” Bernard passed away peacefully on September 8, 2025, after a courageous four-year battle with cancer, with her family by her side.

Born May 11, 1959, to Ethel and the late Leo Bachand, Kathy devoted her life to her family. She is survived by her partner, Dustin Larson; her mother, Ethel; her sister, Karen Stone; her brothers, Richard and Robert Bachand; her children, Melissa Bass (EJ), Amy Coulter (Donovan), and Mike Bernard (Jen); and five grandchildren she adored and was deeply proud of; Hunter, Hayden, Brooke, Jack, and Lana.

Kathy will be remembered for her love of family gatherings and holidays, where she created lasting traditions with her children and grandchildren. She cherished time with her loyal Chihuahua, Daisy Mae, whose companionship brought her comfort and joy.

Her strength, devotion, and warmth will be carried on through the family she loved so dearly.

“ I am so sad to hear about Kathy's passing. I will always remember our family get togethers when we were young. From crabbing in MD to sitting on the roof of your house in NH to watch fireworks, I will always have these memories. I know my Uncle Leo was waiting for Kathy with a giant bear hug. All my Love and prayers to the family.

Thank you for sharing your Mom with me. She was a sweet, genuine lady who loved her family and enjoyed family times. I have fond memories and especially enjoyed sharing our fondness for Smith hot dogs.
