Kelly Trott Whiteted Harrington

“I have fought the good fight, I have finished the race, I have kept the faith”. 2
Tim 4:7

Kelly Trott Whiteted Harrington passed from her earthly struggle with cancer to her heavenly home on Saturday, February 24, 2018 at the Lower Cape Fear Hospice Center in Wilmington, NC. She was born to Jerry & Brenda Trott on December 17, 1963. She was preceded in death by her father, Jerry Trott. Kelly is survived by her loving husband Lawrence “Larry” Harrington, daughter Chelsea Whiteted Lanier (Lee), mother Brenda Trott, sister Kim Hufham (Gary), nephews Cameron Hufham (Elizabeth) & Kyle Hufham, great niece Kendall Hufham, aunts Brenda Hines (Jim), Gloria Parrish (Robert) and two very special friends Renee Jonza and Melissa Paramore.

Kelly attended Topsail Elementary, Topsail High and graduated from Pender Academy in 1982. She was an outstanding athlete excelling in basketball and softball. Kelly earned her Associates degree in Criminal Justice from Wake Tech and her Bachelor’s degree in Social Services from Campbell University. She was employed by Martin Marietta Aggregates in Rocky Point for 10 years. Kelly met the love of her life, Larry “Boo” Harrington at the Owls Nest Recovery Center in Florence, SC in 2012 and they married in 2013. Because of their love for our Lord Jesus and great desire to help others, they ministered to many residents at the Owls Nest. She became a mother figure to many girls as she loved and encouraged them on their journey. Kelly earned the name “Mama Spike” because of her hairstyle.
