

Kimberly Ann Rhodes-Thomas

January 1, 1965 - March 16, 2024

Kim Rhodes-Thomas, 59, passed away peacefully at home in Wilmington, N.C., surrounded by family.

Kim is survived by her husband Rich, her children Jaime, Shephard, Nicole, and Jared, her father John, her siblings Dave (Cathy), Chris, Katie (Alex), Meghan, and Will, her parents-in-law Carol and Hal Thomas, her sister-in-law Lisa, her brother-in-law Steve (Heather), and her nieces and nephews. She is predeceased by her mother Carole.

Kim was the first baby born in Nassau County, New York on January 1, 1965, thus beginning her lifelong love of the beach. She attended the High School of Music & Art in Manhattan, and earned her Bachelor of Art History from S.U.N.Y Stony Brook. Kim was an artist. First a painter in acrylics and oils, she later started a successful handmade jewelry business, Pink Snake Jewelry.

Kim had a deep empathy for all living creatures and a selfless love of the many animals she came to care for, especially her cats. She left no seashell unexplored on Wrightsville Beach or Figure Eight Island. Devoted wife, mother, daughter, sister, and friend, Kim was so many things, and in all of them extraordinary.

A private memorial will take place.

“ I am saddened and very sorry for your loss. Kim was my go-to artist for handmade jewelry for years. She even made some custom pieces for me. Besides being a talented artist, she was also very sweet and personable. I will miss her.
