“ Linda, you were my next favorite Auntie, even though I was against playing favorites. You and I had the same mentality about some things and were both hot-headed.. we said what we meant and meant what we said.. You were my second mom next to Mother, while you were my guardian, taking care of me til Mother & Poppy arrived in NC after I was horribly bullied.. you got me thru that.. you were my comfort in that. You were my chauffeur in NC and helping me establish roots here in the Cape Fear returning once again after decades away.. and the Welcoming Committee I had coming off that airplane was one I will never forget. I knew my family at first glance in that cracker jack box!

You took care of me as I first enrolled in the High School here at Hoggard, too, even with all the strange looks and the comments I kept getting over my "odd accent", you dared anyone to mess with me.. you even took me to get a makeover at the mall. Ohh the joy! Your presence will be sorely missed at all the get togethers and your fatback and biscuits, too! Now what am I gunna snack on?!? It just breaks my heart that you are gone too soon. 💔😞😭 But you will always be to me a sassy & feisty redheaded firecracker! I will miss front porch chats and Karaoke singing, too.. I LOVE YOU TO THE STARS "My Auntie Slinda!!" 😊😄😭

Keep them on their toes up there.. and give our love to everyone in the Heavens before us! XOXOXO 🌸🌸🌸🌸🌸🌸

“ Sis I never thought you would be leaving this world so soon . You were there from the day I was born and stay by my side my entire life. We were not only sisters but best friends always together. It was very difficult seeing you suffering for so long. You are pain free at last and with mother in heaven. I love you my beautiful sister and will hold you in my heart for the rest of my days . I know your feisty sprit will walk by my side even now . Tell mother, Sierra and my sweet fur boy Nutt we love them bunches infinity.

“ My Auntie Lindaness.... Fought the hard fight almost her entire life... she was a feisty individual. Angie said it best! She would go way above and beyond to protect her family, and take care of them, before herself. You didn't want to make her mad... she wasn't a natural red head but you wouldn't have known it.

Linda could cook! Down home southern cooking! She made THE BEST Macaroni and Crab Stew! I am thankful she taught me how to make her macaroni! She would make it for me every single birthday...

Linda loved Bingo! If you couldn't find her, well then you weren't looking in Bingo Halls heheh!

She loved her family. Regardless of how sick she got, she still did everything she could to ensure they were ok. It makes me sad, as I just wish she would have taken care of herself just the same.

Linda an an infectious laugh! I spent so much of my childhood with her and she came over to the house quite often still to visit. Just to sit and chat, since in the last few years that was the only energy she could find.

Linda is now in Heaven with her mother Helen Virginia Fryar Hobbs, her late husband James Daniel Davis Jr. a Nephew Wayne Crisco, and a Niece, my daughter Sierra Lynn Bradley. She was also preceded in death by many of her fur and grand fur children.

Rest easy in Heaven my Auntie Linda, surrounded by all of those who have gone before you. We will love you always. You are always welcome to come back home to visit. I think your sisters and your daughter especially would like to see and hear your voice again.

Love your niece, Denise and family

“ Angie, Virginia, Judy, Sandra, Teresa and Dave. Also neices, nephews and friends, I know your hearts are heavy. Look to God to ease those pains. Remember those happy moments where you laughed till you cried or other more embarrassing things. I know she would want every one of you to know Jesus in a very personal way. So in Linda's memory I give you Jesus. Love to all, Glenna Fryar Butler and husband Ken Butler
