“ My heart aches as I come to terms with the loss of my dear American Mama, MaryAnn Brunner - a woman after God's own heart. She was my unwavering supporter, my confidant, my prayer partner... my family.

She stood in the gap for us, bringing comfort in times of pain and adversity placing food on our tables, and extending her hand to help us and those who depended on us. Who will fill that gap now?

Though we find peace in knowing that she is in a better place - free from pain, resting in the arms of our Savior - the void her absence leaves is immeasurable. tears..

Her wise counsel, boundless love, and generous spirit will be deeply missed by her

Kenyan family and friends too. We are devastated by her transition, yet we remain grateful for the light she shone in our lives.

Know that you are in our thoughts and prayers during this period and the days that follow this loss!
