“ It's still hard to believe I'll never hear your voice again, or see you pop online to our silly little game. It feels a lot emptier without you to help me along, yknow? But I'm glad you're in a better place now - at peace. I will always, always hold you in high regard, and keep you nestled away in the secret depths of my heart. We'll meet again, I know it. Rest easy, Nick.

“ I'm so sorry to hear this. Nick was a very kind man with a work ethic that stood out from the rest. He wouldn't hesitate to help a friend in need without considering what could possibly be in it for himself. I know I personally will miss him and know everyone who was fortunate enough to cross paths with him will surely miss him the same. Rest in Peace Nick. God speed brother.

“ My thoughts are with you and I'm sure all the good people around you will do their best to help you go through this unbearable lost. I am Rick's colleague and in all my life I rarely met a nicer person so even though I did not know him, it is not hard to believe that Nick was a nice person too.
As long as he is in your heart, he's still around and his spirit will help you.

“ Nick was one of the kindest hardworking people I've ever met. The world lost a great kid who always looked out for others. Nick will be missed by the many coworkers he had threw out the years.
