“ Raymond Kincaid was my birth dad- he impregnated Mary Francis Taylor when she was 15-(& he was married & he had a boy named Douglas-) when I was 9 mo old she realized she couldn't keep me so gave me to Children's Home Society Greensboro- Walter Kincaid (Raymonds Dad-) arranged for Grandma Kincaid's daughter & husband to take me by giving them a 1934 Ford with rumble seat(they needed it to drive to Children's Home society in Greensboro to get me!) had a horrible life -with them- sexual abuse- worked like Cinderella- !! Don took me away to Ca for a happy life!

“ My personal memory of Miss Rachel, she was our choir director at Wrightsville Beach Baptist when I was a child into early teenage years. And one Christmas she chose me to be Mary for the Christmas play and wanted me to sing a solo "oh Holy night" she worked with me on those high notes and on the night I pulled it off.. Miss Rachel was the cool choir director she always was dressed so beautifully and yet she was so down to earth and she was so so funny! I know that's where her daughters Tracy and Jamie get it from .
