Sondra graduated from The Baldwin School in Byrn Maur, PA and attended Duke University. She graduated from UNCW Nursing school in 1980 and Parish Nursing program at Medical University of South Carolina in Charleston, SC. Her passion was helping others and sharing her love of Jesus Christ. She taught Sunday school to all age groups for many years and led a Campaigners Christian group for teens. She worked as registered nurse at New Hanover Regional and Cape Fear Hospital and later found her love in Geriatric Care management and as a Hospice Nurse. She served on the first board of Lower Cape Fear Hospice and created the Festival of Trees as funding source for Cape Fear Hospice that continues today. She served on the board of NHRMC and founding board of NHRMC foundation and the CHIPS Board under NHRMC. She served on many other various church and community boards and committees.

She grew up riding horses and on the show circuit for many years as a teen from Madison Square Gardens, NY to Lexington, KY. She was a 5-gaited world champion on Dee Dee Tee and Reserve World Champion on Rainbow Sensation. She enjoyed fox hunting while in Byrn Maur, PA, Middleburg ,VA and Facquier , VA. Sondra's love of animals grew over the years as she rescued many animals of all kinds, dogs, cats, horses, rats, parrot, raccoons, squirrels, biddies and ducks and loved them as her own. She loved telling her animal stories focusing on the bonds between humans and animals. She started writing a series of her animal reflections in recent years that her children hope to finish and share in her honor.

As a founding member of Myrtle Grove Presbyterian Church, she has shared a special love of the Lord with many at the church and all the loving members of Circle #5. She loved helping others and people in need. She touched many lives and shared her faith with others until her very last day.

Sondra was predeceased by her loving husband of 50 years, Reece Albright

Robertson, her son Robert (Tre) Jackson Benson III, and her brother Nello L Teer III.

“ Dear family,
My heart aches from the grief that you are suffering.
Knowing of God's embracing love for you, continue looking to him when " He will wipe out all tears from our eyes, death, pain, and suffering will be no more. " - Revelation 21: 3,4
He says death is an " enemy that will be brought to nothing. " 1 -
Corinthians 15:26
It comforts our hearts to know this pain will be a thing of the past and through Christ the resurrection of our loved ones.
We " do not sorrow just as the rest do who have no hope! " 1
Thessalonians 4:13
