“ A memory I recall may help me to articulate the love that I received from my Uncle Mark:
I remember him making me tacos for dinner for an entire week. Now, most would say that is a bit redundant however, my sweet Uncle knew that was the only thing to get my home in time for dinner. Although this memory may seem insignificant, I feel it truly portrays our loving and slightly humorous relationship we shared. On top of our intellectual conversations, he always seemed to slide in a quick joke or two (unknowingly). I will miss your intelligence, advice, motivation and undying love. Most of all, I will miss seeing your sweet smile. You are forever in my heart and I will never forget our talk on the back porch. Just like I held your hand until your last breath, I will hold it again in Heaven one day. I love you Uncle Mark, always.

“ I love you Uncle Mark! I know you are looking down on all of us and i know that you are better off. You can now be with Granddaddy. Your such a smart, caring, and loyal person. I cant tell you how much i love you and will miss you soo much! Wish you could have met Elijah but, i know you will be smiling down on him. I love you

“ *Mark is my friend and is the most intelligent man I know and we have been friends since 1983. It's a terrible loss to all of us that he left this world too early.
Bye Mark, I miss you.*
