“Harry, know we are thinking of you with heart felt joy and sadness during your Memorial tomorrow. Joy comes with knowing you're with Jesus, and sadness comes from us missing you. You will never be forgotten.”

“ A MONTH CALLED APRIL

*In a month called April you went away
You went to meet the Lord on this special day
You will be missed; your laugh, your smile
I'm sure we'll all meet again... in a while*

*The phone calls we shared were always fun
Times we'd laugh for minutes before we were done
Then you and Bobby would reminisce and talk long
You always made us laugh, it was like a song*

*In a month called April you rose up into the sky
There's never enough time to say goodbye
I only met you once and that was enough
I'll remember you forever because you had that touch*

*The phone would ring and it would be you
I'd know we would be laughing before we were through
I'll miss your calls, and the laughter we shared
Indeed, Mr. Harry, a lot of us really cared*

*You were loved by many because you were a dear
Now you're free from pain and nary a fear
Tell Jesus hello for me and watch the flowers bloom
In a month called April, you left way too soon.*

“ Harry, as we all know you are now free of pain and walking with the Lord. I am so thankful for our long relationship that continued on throughout these years. You accepted my new family, and never forgot Donna and her family, and asked about them each time we talked. We talked often on the phone and each call was a pleasure. I'm so glad I got to take Allison and Quinton up to see you before you got so sick. Harry, I have been blessed to have known you. Prayers go out to the family and friends who loved him so much. We will meet again my friend.
