“ Papa T's unconditional love for his family, country, and faith in God were his pillars for how he lived his life. He was proud of his family and they gave him happiness, pride and joy and he gave it right back. Papa T loved music (especially Uncle Buck live), shagging to beach music, and found peace being on the water. He truly enjoyed life and knew how to live it in the moment, and was always there to share it with his family. So many many happy and loving memories and always casting a big smile except of course when a democat won an election :) Thank you for filling our hearts with so much love and joy we are able to take with us. Rest in Peace

“ Papa T,
A loving husband, father & grandfather, the patriarch. His joy came from his family and the love they gave him which was received back in countless ways. His love filled our hearts full 💕💕 A Sympathy Gift of Cluster of 50 Trees has been Planted In Loving Memory of William Rogers courtesy of The Bland's.

“ My heart is broken. He was mom's favorite cousin and really just like a brother to her like her own brothers. Even though Dad and he weren't blood kin, Uncle Ted was one of dad's best friends. Mom often compared me to Uncle Ted, "growing older, but not up". Love to all of the family. You all are in my thoughts are prayers.
